Mr. Allen W. Dulles
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
2304 E Street, NW
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear Mr. Dulles,

25X1 Having been ordered to a new station and new command, I am taking the liberty of expressing to you my deep appreciation for the manner in which your [redacted] has cooperated with my unit in its pursuit of our common objectives bearing upon the security of the United States.

25X1 I refer particularly to the helpfulness, understanding, high professional competence, and dedication of Mr. Tom Karamessine, the former [redacted] and to no lesser degree, of the present [redacted]

25X1 Through the successive efforts of these two gentlemen, we have succeeded in developing a comprehensive working agreement which permits my Group to take fullest advantage of the many intelligence assets which affect the United States Army, Europe, and which originate in [redacted] or transit that country, at the same time avoiding the pitfalls which attend our operation in the complicated environment of a [redacted] sovereign state.

25X1 Mr. Karamessines and [redacted] have recognized the importance of the United States Army, Europe as a major instrument of US National Policy and have been repeatedly instrumental in making our security tasks easier and more effective.

25X1 It has been a pleasure to work with gentlemen of the caliber of Messrs Karamessines and [redacted] whose personalities complement their outstanding qualifications in the intelligence field.

Sincerely,

W.P.
